

Conflict of Interest Declaration

I recognize that as a board member of the American Society of Acupuncturists (ASA), I owe fiduciary duties of care and loyalty to the organization. One aspect of fulfilling these duties is to avoid conflicts of interest in which my allegiance might be split between the ASA position or responsibilities and any other professional, business or volunteer interest.

To avoid potential conflicts, on this form I am disclosing situations or areas in which it may appear that I have conflicting duties. I also agree to disclose any actual or potential conflicts of interest as they may occur. I invite further review by the organization of any aspects of these situations or areas that might be considered a conflict of interest.

In order to protect against legal liability to the ASA, I will take additional steps to avoid a conflict of interest, which may include recusing myself from a discussion or vote on a motion or withdrawing from my position with the ASA.

1. List all Acupuncture/Asian medicine related business and professional association activities which I am currently or previously been involved in.

2. Professional, business, private or volunteer positions or responsibilities that might give rise to conflicts; please list and explain or state "none".

2. Situations in which I am serving as a vendor or am employed by or consulting with a vendor, to the organization or its Diplomates; please explain or state "none".

If #1 and #2 from above have "none" as a response then:

I know of no professional, business or volunteer position or responsibility, including vendor situations that might give rise to conflicts. If I become aware of any conflicts I will inform the ASA Board . (initial here):_____.
